

THE ARDNACRUSHA EXPERIENCE

Your class will work as a team to create a complete report as you explore the world famous Ardnacrusha power station. As part of TEAM C, your job is to write down some facts about the Station and the Powerplant. Work as a detective as you pass through the different sections of the station. Keep your eyes and ears peeled for the answers! Give it your best effort.
Good luck!

THE POWERSTATION

Don't forget to look out the windows. The penstock is the bit that looks like a line of pens!

Can you find these men? What were their names and what was their job?

Look at the display under the window. The hats represent everyone who worked on the project. How many Irish people and how many Germans worked together on the scheme?

Irish _____ German _____ Total _____

You've seen Sean Keating's fantastic paintings of the construction of the Shannon Scheme in the Keating Gallery. Have a quick chat with a partner about what you think it was like to be a worker on the scheme all that time ago. Once you've done that now think of all the ways that working in ESB has changed.

Ireland is a much better place to be now because we have so many talented and hard working men and women making our lives better. Think of what you could do to make Ireland a better place by working with companies like ESB. What would you like to do when you grown up?

Why?

ESB made lots of posters and leaflets advertising the benefits and uses of electricity. Go and gather some information from the posters you see. When you get back to school, design an old-fashioned poster advertising the benefits of electricity. Make a sketch below of some ideas you have or of a poster you particularly like.

Energy for generations

As you can see, the ESB logo has changed a lot over the years. Nowadays, ESB is working towards an environmentally-friendly, low carbon future. Design a new logo that represents this.

Draw your favourite ESB logo here and even come up with your own design too.

Question time! Write down the 2 most interesting things you learned today.
